Advocacy, Self-Advocacy, Rights, Accessibility, & Community Living for People with a Disability

MEMBERSHIP FORM

AMIDA supports people with a disability as valued members of our community. AMIDA recognises that people with disability contribute to and develop our community.

AMIDA acknowledges that people with disabilities have a right to a choice of who they live with and where they live. Further, people with disabilities have a right to good quality housing which is accessible, affordable and non-institutional. People with disabilities have a right to live in the community with access to support to participate and have a good quality of life.

AMIDA aims are:

- lobby for a range of housing options for people with a disability.
- Increase the level of housing available.
- Make sure that housing and support services treat people with disabilities with respect and dignity.
- To get tenancy rights for people with disabilities.
- To have better support services so people can have a decent standard of living in the housing of their choice.

Are YOU a member of AMIDA? Becoming a member means you can participate in important decisions at AMIDA and vote at the Annual General Meeting and get our newsletter AMIDA NEWS. Membership is free.
